GOING OUT IN STYLE

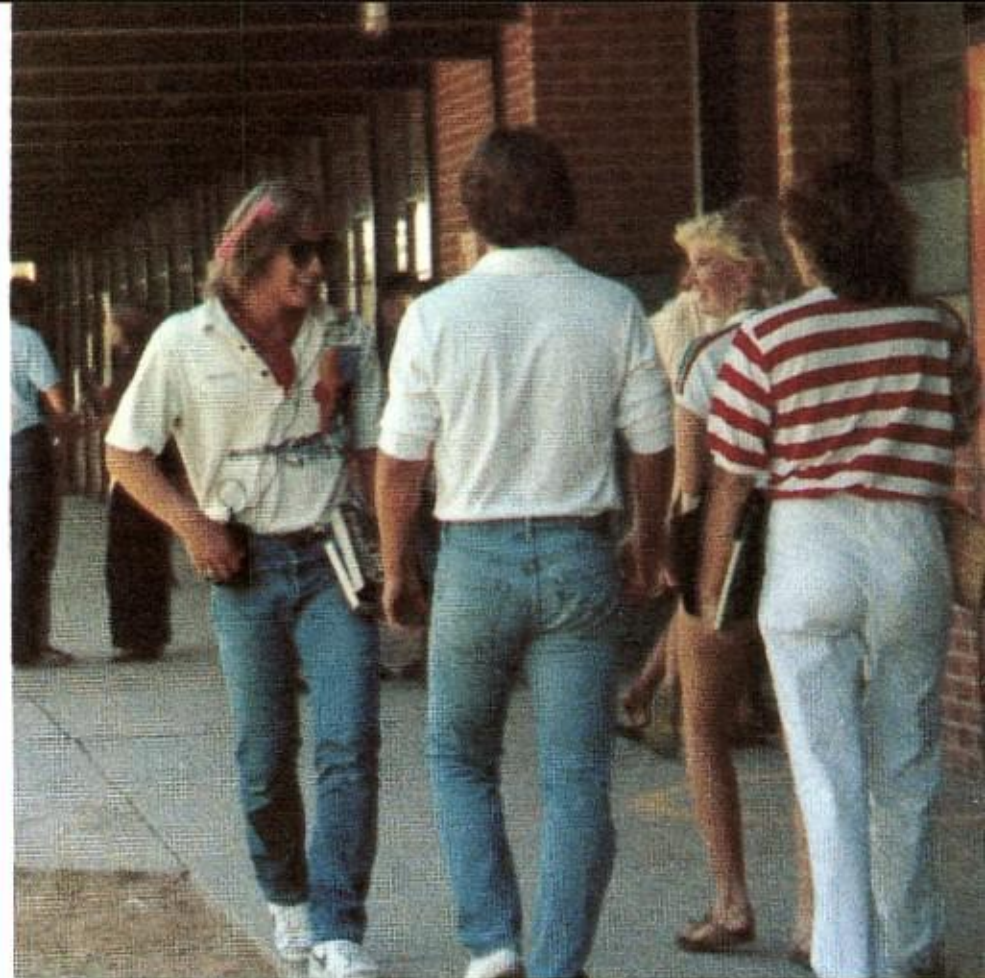

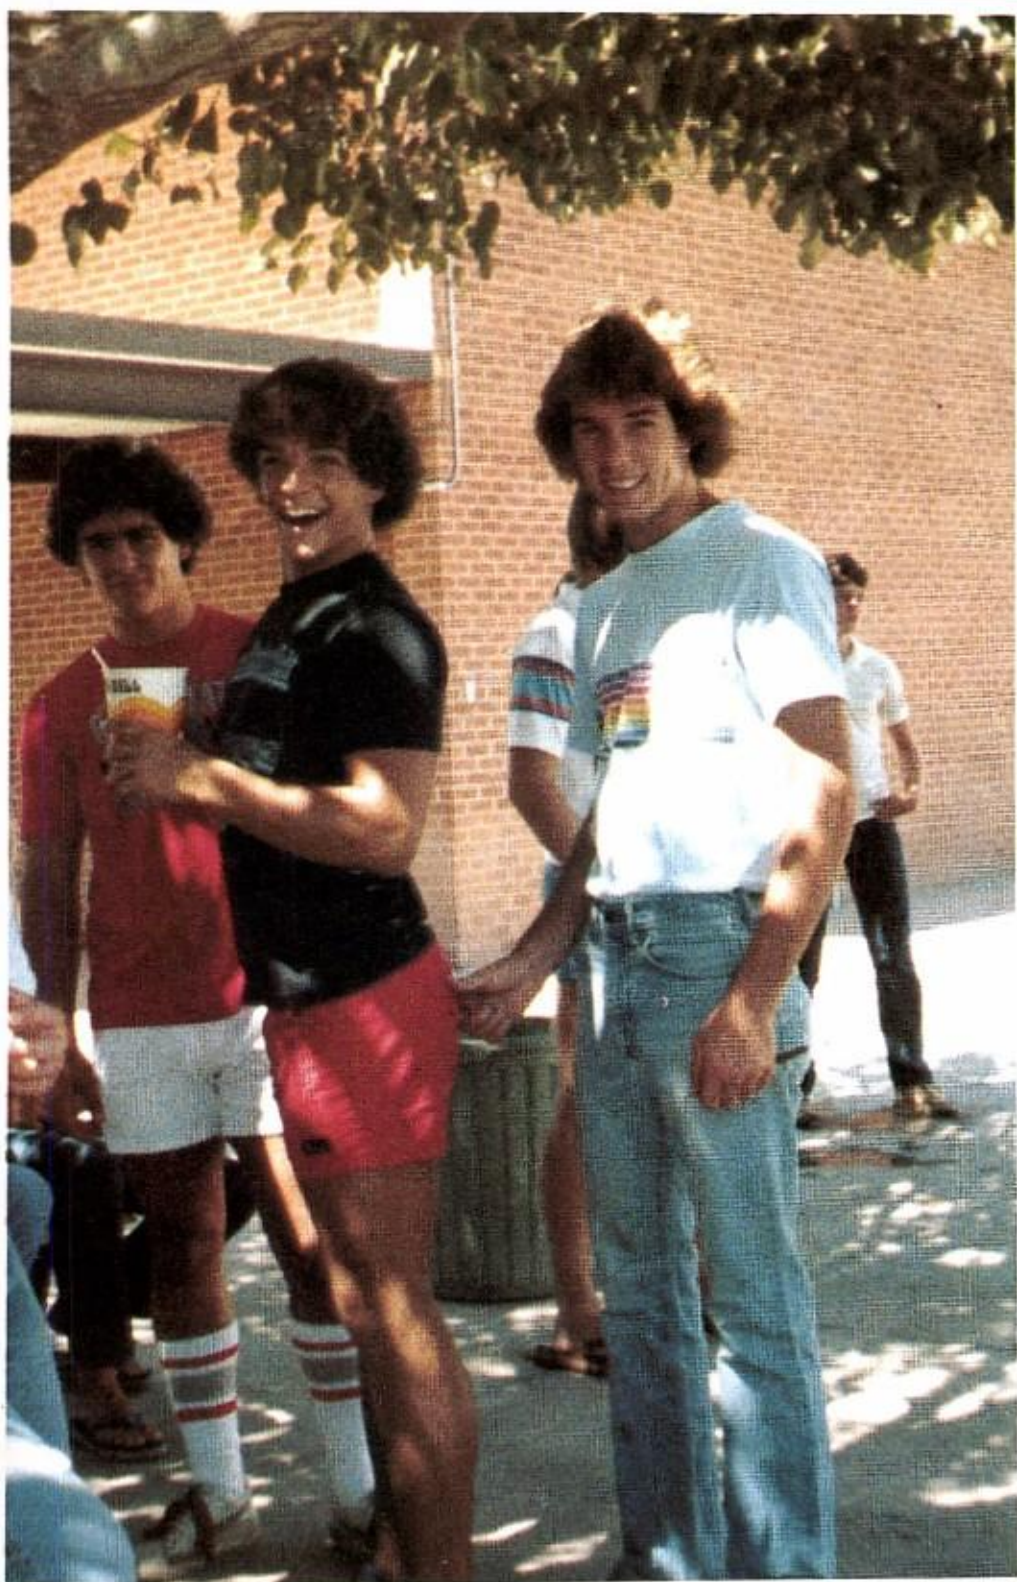

Look Around! What do you see? Jordache, Ocean Pacific, Nike, Calvin Klein, Gloria Vanderbilt, and many other name brands. Guys as well as girls shared an enthusiastic interest in these designer fashions. They were worn to sports events, dances, and all over the campus.

As freshmen, the class of eighty-two would not be seen without five pairs of Levis' cords. During their sophomore year, it was still Levis, but blue jeans instead of cords. By the end of their Junior year fashion jeans started appearing. This year there wasn't one person who didn't have some sort of label or tag on their shirt and jeans. Why? When asked they replied, "they're cute and comfortable," "they're made with better quality," "they look great!" The jeans were worn with a preppy Alligator Oxford shirt and top siders, cowboy boots and a western belt, or with a silky blouse and high heels. Yes, designer jeans were a big part of the school year. As someone said, "The entire school appeared as one long lasting commercial."

ATTITUDE WAS THE KEY

Everyone agreed that the attitude of this year's team was the reason behind their fine performance.

"The reason for our success was our attitude," Head Coach, Pat Lavin said. "We had the pride and citizenship in this year's team."

The team's attitude had to make up for their lack in size. An average size of 5 foot 8½ inches made our team by far the smallest in the Metro league.

Coach Lavin said that the outstanding performance of Bryan Piccolomini and John Canidy, seniors; and Glenn

Rogers, junior; was a "spark to the team."

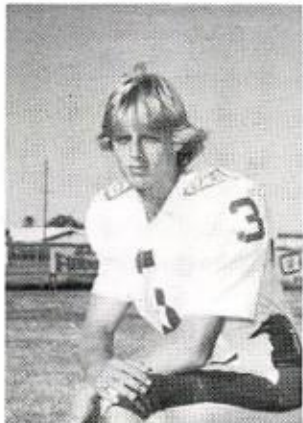

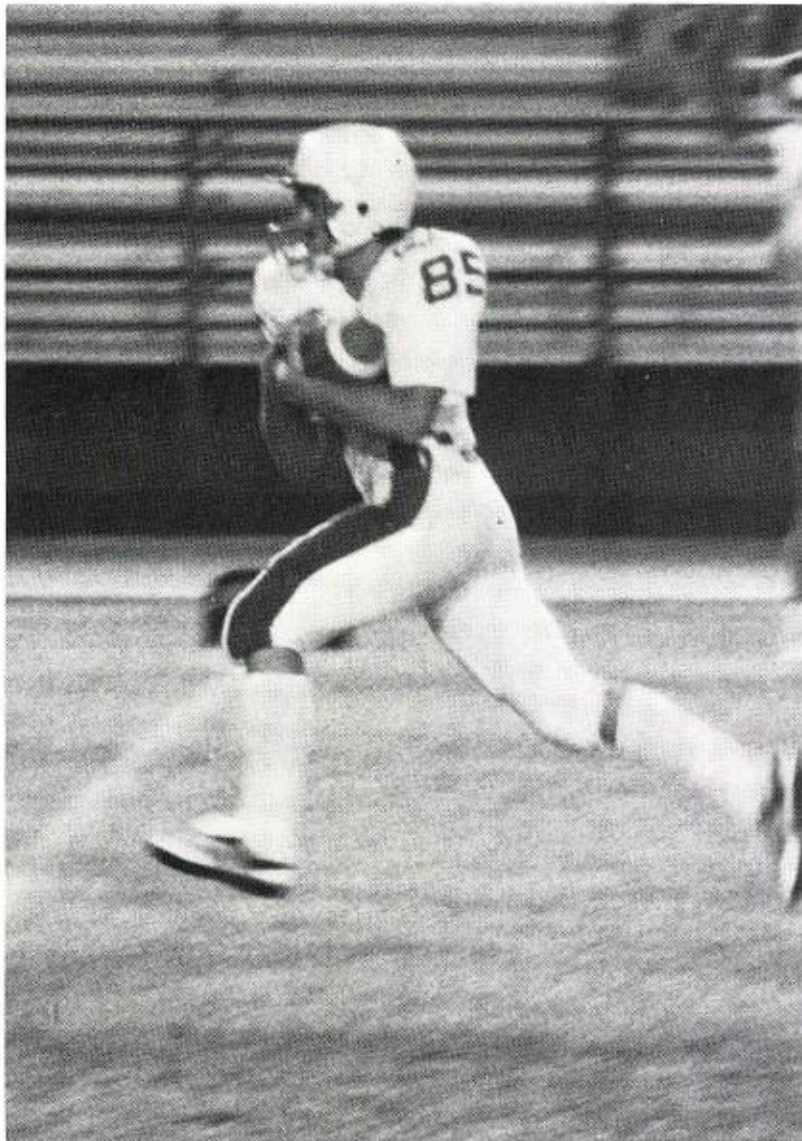

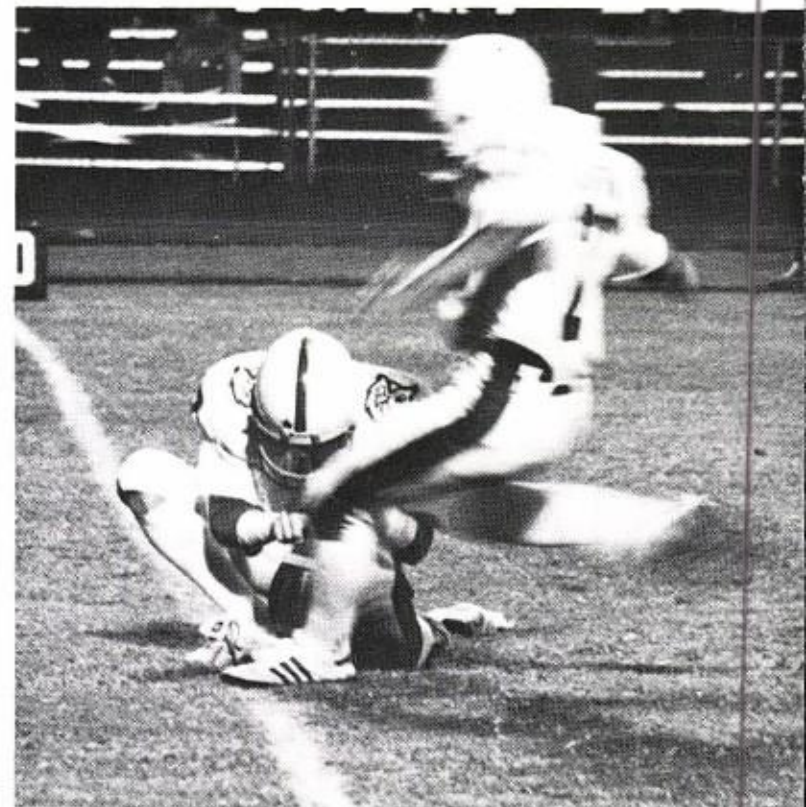

"Bryan and John were really outstanding leaders," coach Lavin stated, "while Glenn was a super kid, the kind you want to coach."

The players said that coach Lavin was the best they've played under.

Glenn Rogers said, "He was a great coach, he really cared for us kids."

The big game of the year was our homecoming game against Scottsdale. Although this game was lost, we ended the season with an 8-2 record.

The Varsity Owls had a fantastic year thanks to the coaches and our team's pride in themselves.

BASKETBALL

The 1982 Owl basketball team had a fine season; Mr. Batemen was a competent coach, and the players used their abilities well. Although the team had a tough schedule, including playing four top-ten teams, they fared very well.

The players thought that coach Batemen did a good job of coaching. "Mr. Batemen was a good coach," said senior guard Tony Mapp, "He was fair to all of the players.

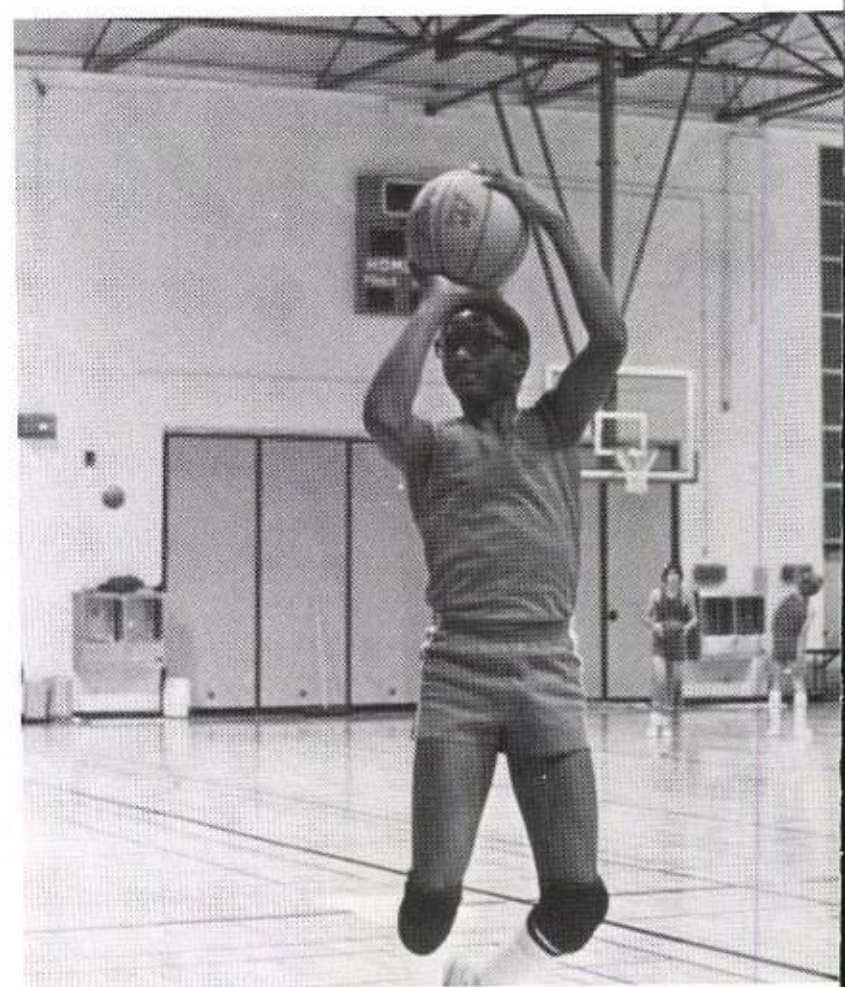

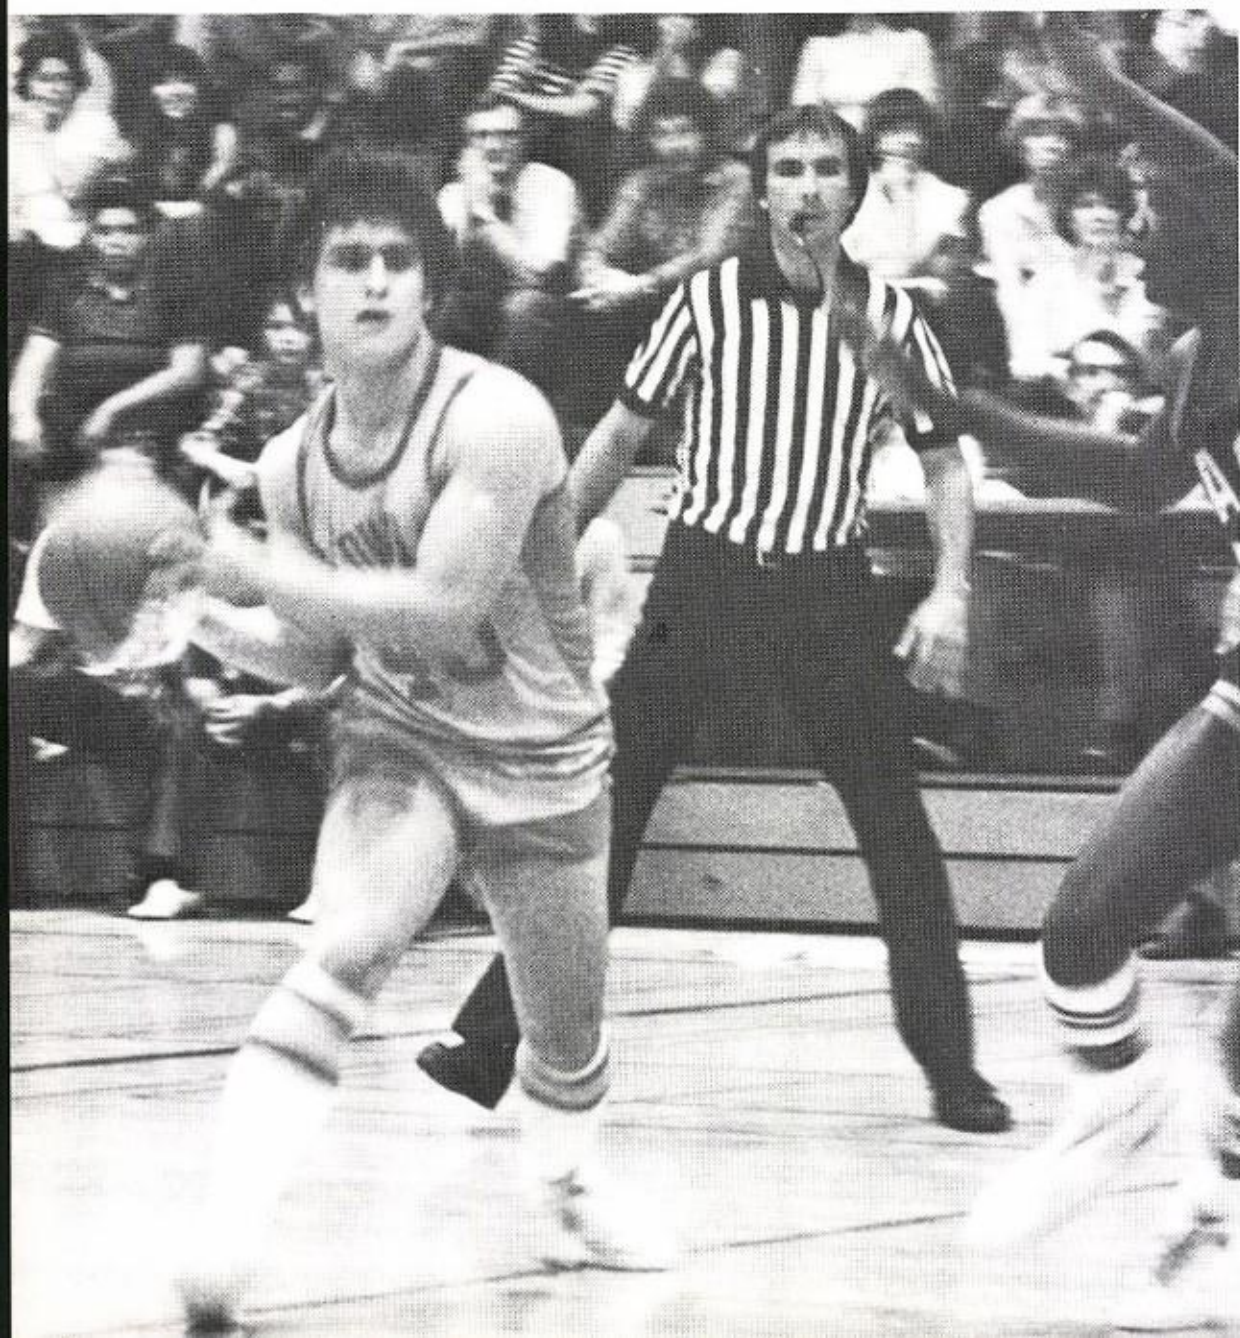

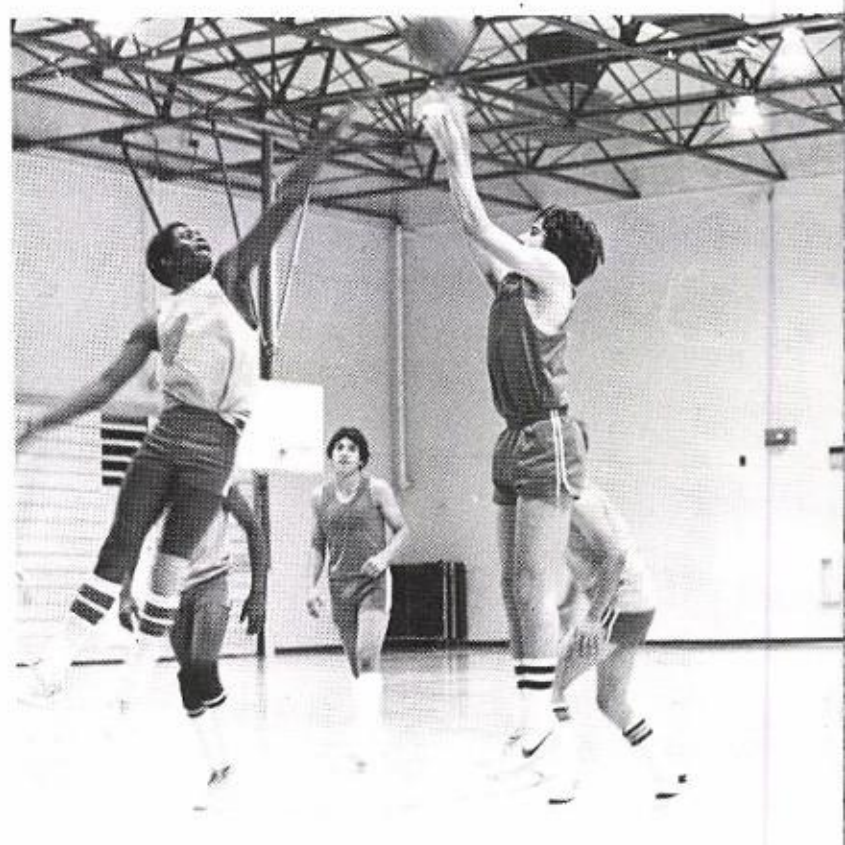

Juniors, Randall McDaniel, and Gleen Rogers had a fine season, with Randall being the team's outstanding player. "Randall really had a good year," Mapp stated.

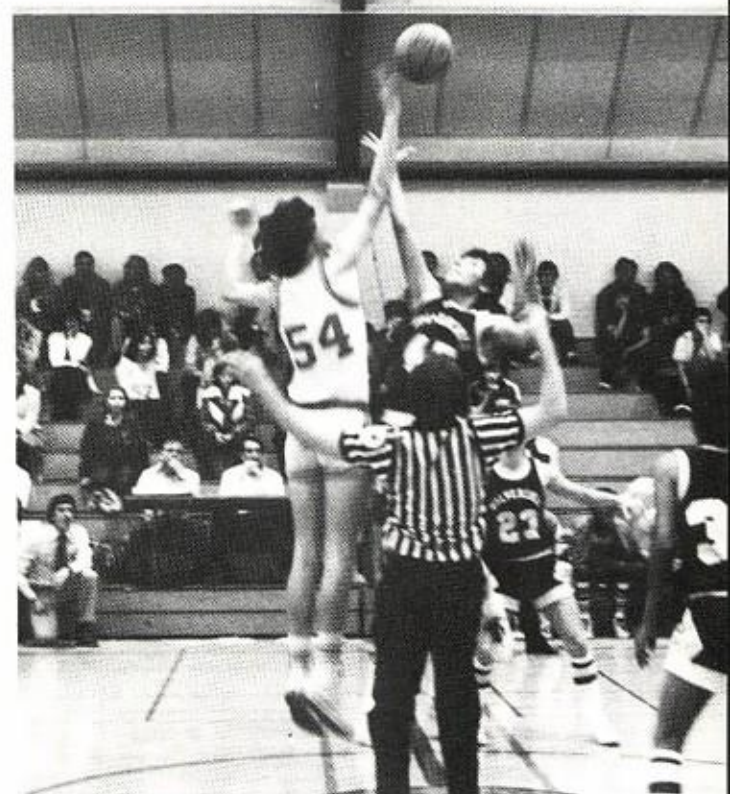

The owl cagers finished the season with a 10-12 record despite their tough schedule. The most memorable game was on February 2, when seventh ranked Casa Grande came to our campus. Our Team played them neck and neck through four overtimes before finally succumbing.

The junior varsity basketball team had a 12-7 year, with its fine forward Cloyce Lamb and center Jim Peters. The Freshmen continued their unbeaten string in major sports by finishing 16-0 in the regular season.

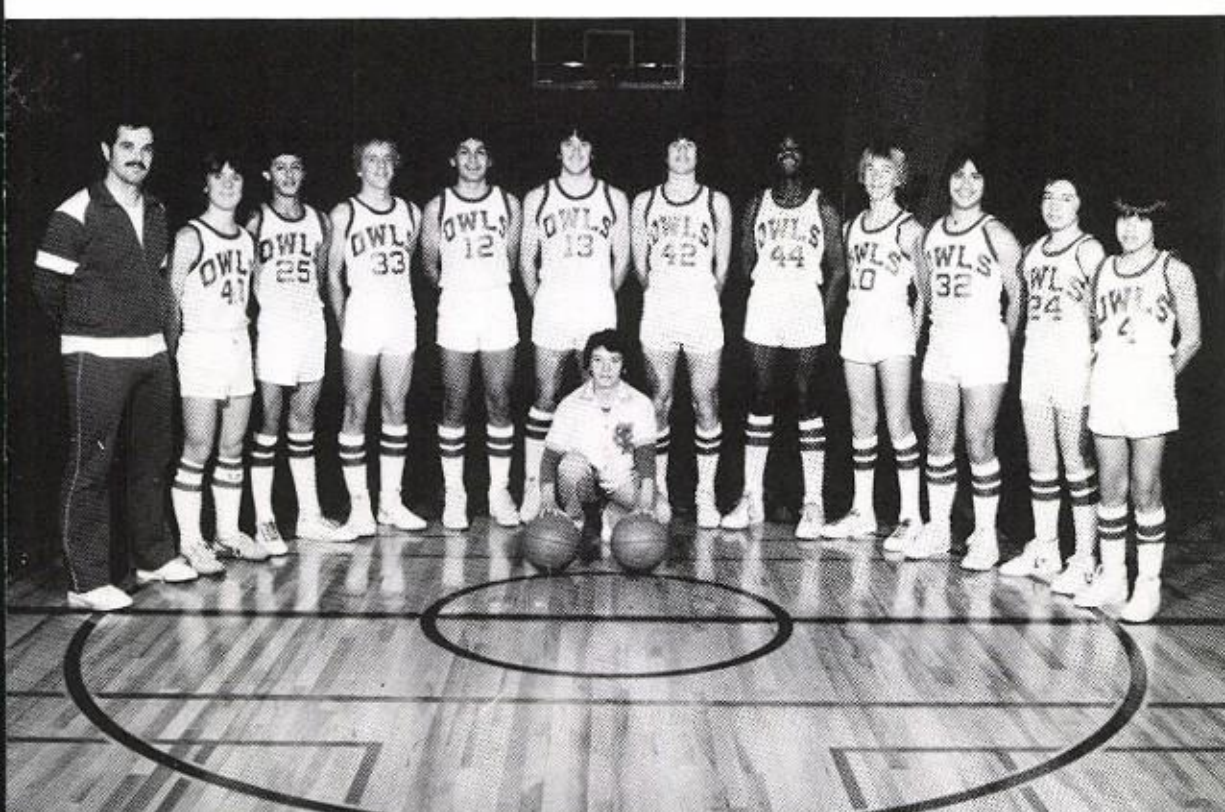

The Agua Fria basketball teams had a great year.

FFA

The Future Farmers of America was formed as a class as well as a club so that members could work during class with their animals.

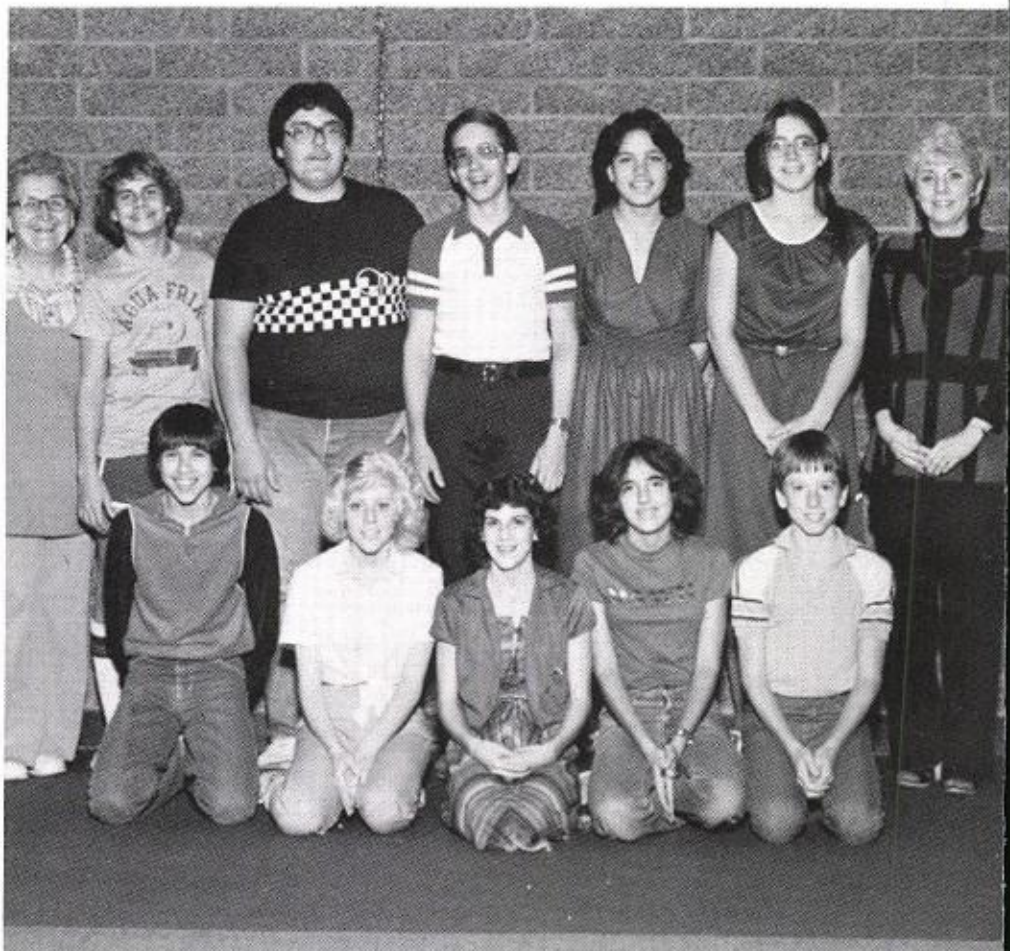

Some of these animals are entered in the state and county fairs. The students also learn various other things such as judging crops and different animals. This is just a few of the things Future Farmers do, and don't think it was all work, for at the beginning of the year, the annual Owl Bar-B-Q was held for all to enjoy.

AFJROTC

The Agua Fria Union High School Air Force Junior ROTC has consistently been named as one of the best units in the nation. AFJROTC is a regular elective course which concentrates on Aerospace Education in which students get a good foundation in aviation and space activities. In addition, cadets are given a structured program of learning leadership by holding positions of responsibility in the Cadet Corps. Voluntary extracurricular activities such as the Drill Team and Color Guard are provided for interested Cadets. These groups performed in parades and competitions throughout the state and were in constant demand at school and community functions for demonstrations and flag presentations. The play performed by the drama students this year and directed by Virginia Heidrick was a three act comedy play called Chicken Every Sunday by Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein.

The entire action took place in the living room of a boarding home owned by Mr. and Mrs. Blachman (Kelli Naifeh and Karl Beck), their oldest daughter, Rosemary (Susan Schriener) and the two youngest, Oliver and Ruthie (Jack Maslysa and Dawn Gilmore). Some of the boarders included Mrs. Lawson (Donna Hayes), a pushy mother to her son Jeffrey (David Hunt) an aspiring poet, secret lovers Miss Gilley (Kim Hunter) and Mr. Robinson (Steve Rizzo), Uncle Jake (Jeff Talarico) an all around, "affectionate" person, Rita Kirby (Erin Ledwidge), and a suspected spy (Eric Braverman). The variation of the different boarders made the play very funny and enjoyable to watch.

A lot of work goes into maintaining the top ten positions of a class. And it takes even more work to be number one and two out of a class of 360. According to Valedictorian Beth Filliman and Salutatorian Colleen Leach "it has been an enlightening year" spending time with the classmates of 1982.

JUNIORS

The junior class has been outstanding and active in all the yearly school activities. The members have kept the lively spirit going and were loyal supporters of Agua Fria sports by attending all games and cheering on the players. This class will always be remembered for its enthusiasm and good sportsmanship.

They cheerfully participated and enjoyed all the Homecoming activities, especially the tricycle race and root beer chug in which they won first place.

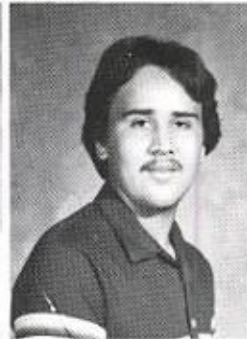

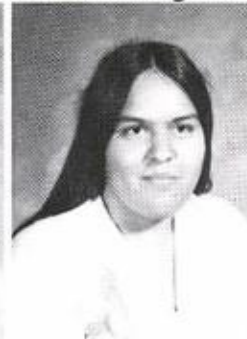

The annual candy sale conducted by the junior class to finance the Junior-Senior Prom was very successful. This year more candy bars were sold than any preceding year.

The junior class as a whole has displayed exceptional spirit and pride in past years, and this same commitment has continued throughout the 1981-82 school year. The Class of 1983 eagerly awaits the challenges in their final and hopefully most productive year.

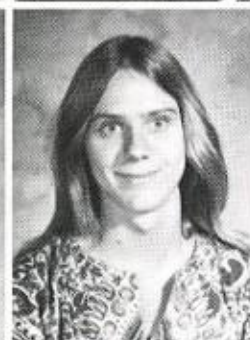

Larry Kirsch chugs to success.

FRESHMEN

Our baby owls were involved in more activities this year than ever. Participation in school events to keep up the Agua Fria school spirit was rewarding to everyone. Homecoming, the first big event for freshmen, was successful due to all the involvement of the students.

Sports was very popular with freshmen this year. The football team had a fantastic season with a 8-0 record. The enthusiasm among the class of '85" was outstanding.

FACULTY

Every year we have an outstanding faculty and this year was no exception.

The teachers spent many hours before, during and after school helping students achieve their goals.

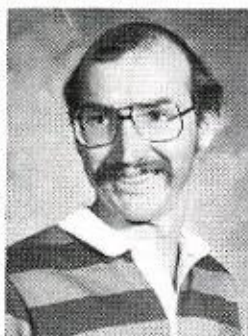

The faculty members had their share of spirit this year. There were many faculty activities, including the Glendale picket rally out in the student parking lot, dressing in school colors on spirit day, and the faculty band and cheerleaders. Club advisors and staff members helped out tremendously during homecoming week by working on floats and other various activities.

The faculty, through support and understanding, has once again made this year a successful one.

ADMINISTRATION

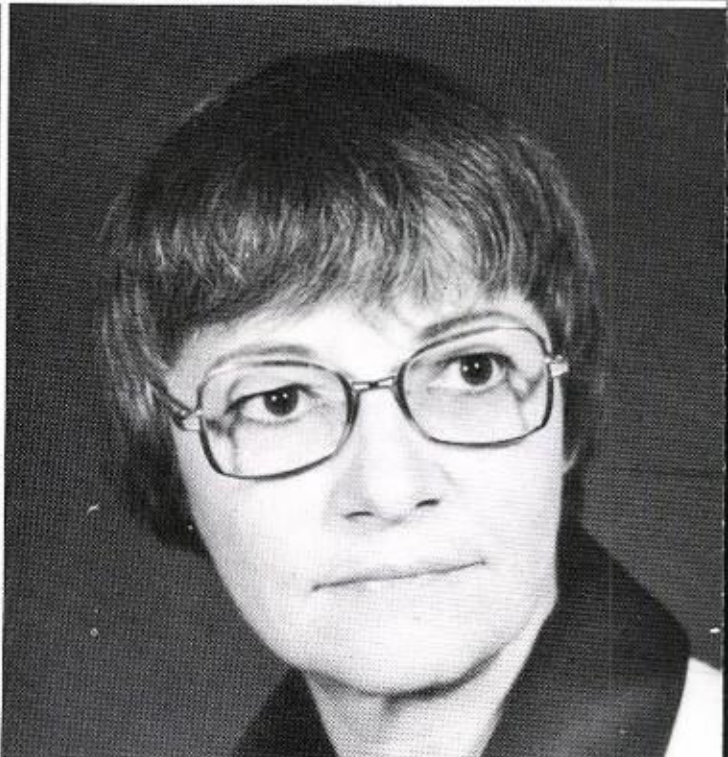

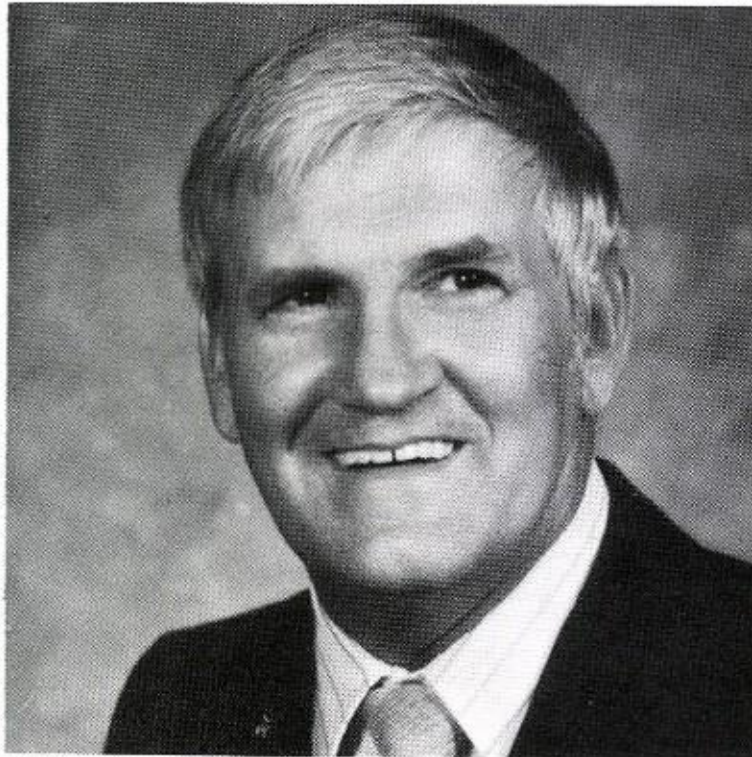

We look to the administration for expert guidance and experienced leadership. They gave to us both of these much needed qualities. They helped us pick our classes, gave us advice, and helped seniors get jobs after graduation. They also lectured us about life. These things helped us to prepare for life in high school and after, for whatever path we decided to follow. Discipline, along with understanding is a part of their job. We'll always remember the generosity and kindness they showed us.

HANGING AROUND

Many Agua Fria students spent their off campus hours keeping busy with the different activities happening in the community. Over the summer, students did everything from playing frisbee in the parks to tubing down the river.

When school started up, Agua Friars were on their toes when it came to applying for jobs. Many students worked at Westridge Mall and others worked closer to home at businesses such as Baskin Robins, McDonalds, The Wigwam, and Alpha Beta.

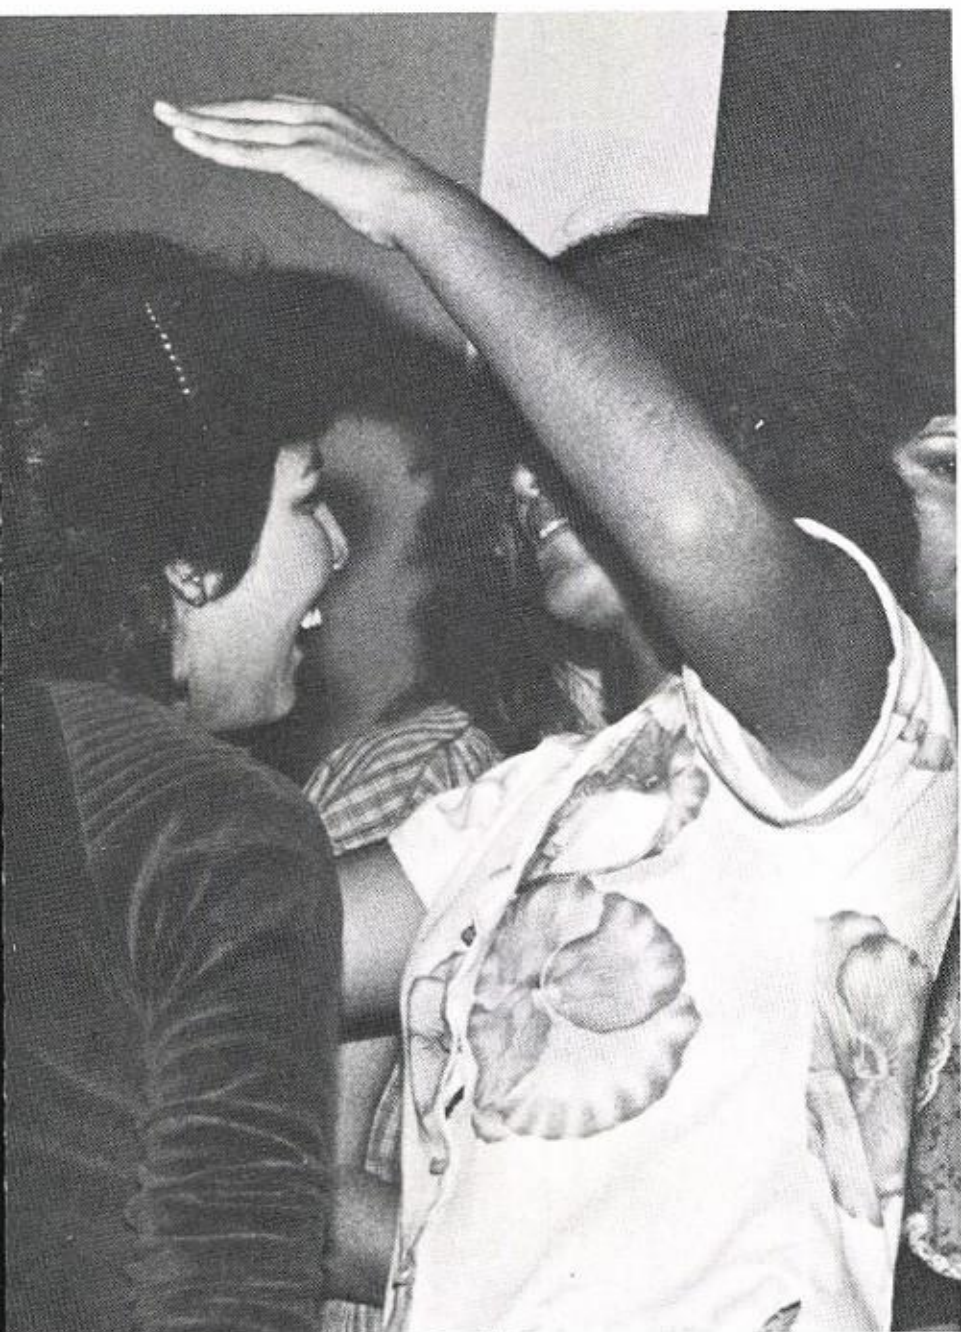

Although many of the students were employed this year they still found time for other outside activities such as school functions, parties, or just hanging around with friends.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

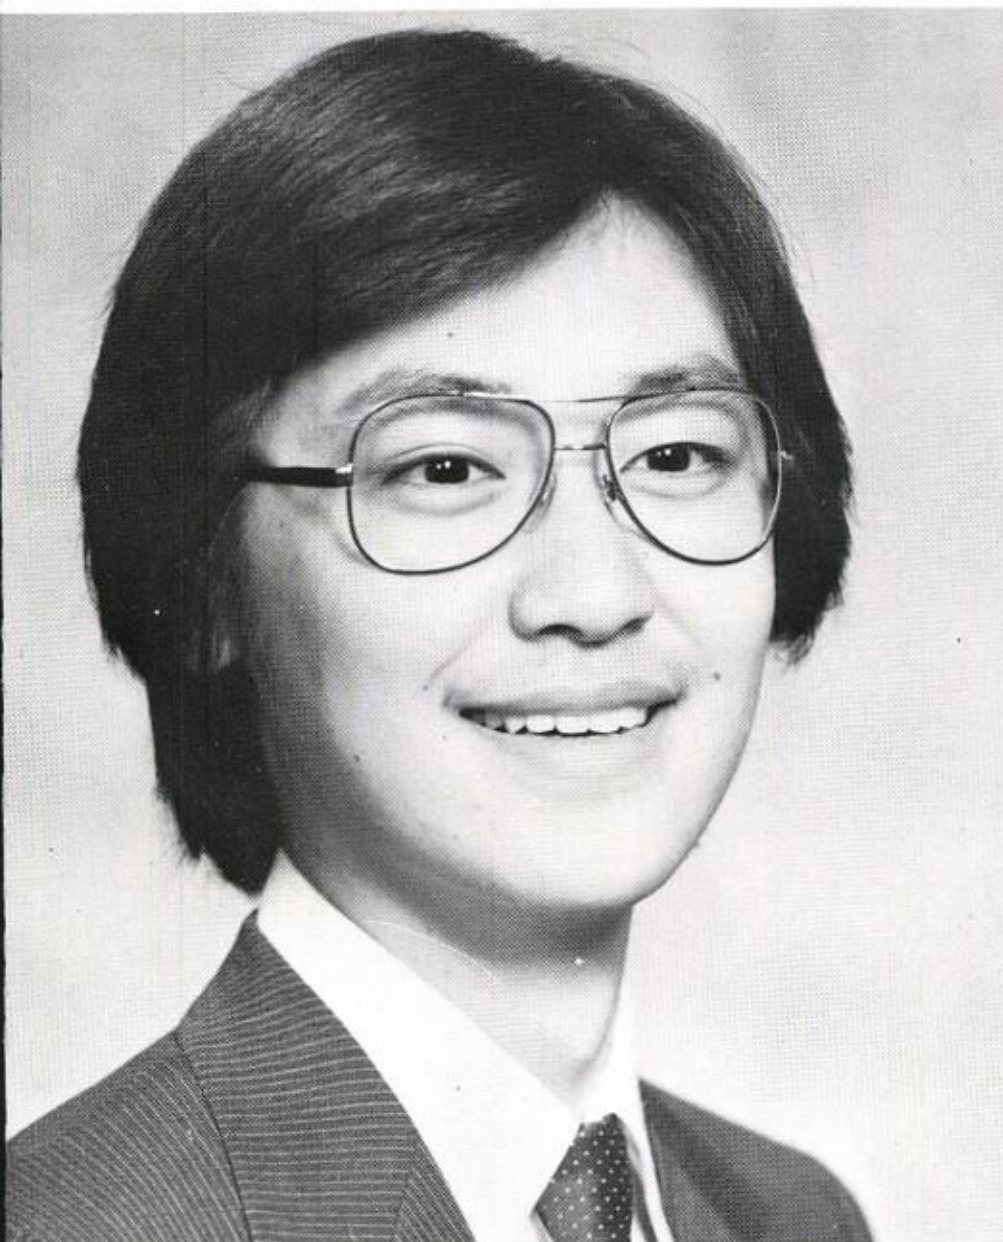

What is it like to be in America for the first time? Hirochika Noritake, Carlos Salerno, and Jean Scharle can answer that.

Hirochika is from the country of Japan and Carlos and Jean are from Brazil. Although each boy missed his own country a great deal they enjoyed being in America. Hirochika Noritake and Carlos Salerno lived with Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCrillis this year while Jean lived with Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kuhler.

Hirochika, Jean, and Carlos all were asked what they missed most about their country. Their first answer was "my country's food." However, U.S. food definitely tempted their taste buds. Favorites consisted of everything from French fries to milkshakes.

When asked what their first impression of America was, Noritake, Senior, replied, "I was surprised, I imagined a wild desert and wild people." Carlos, Junior, noticed that the American people were extremely cheerful and friendly.

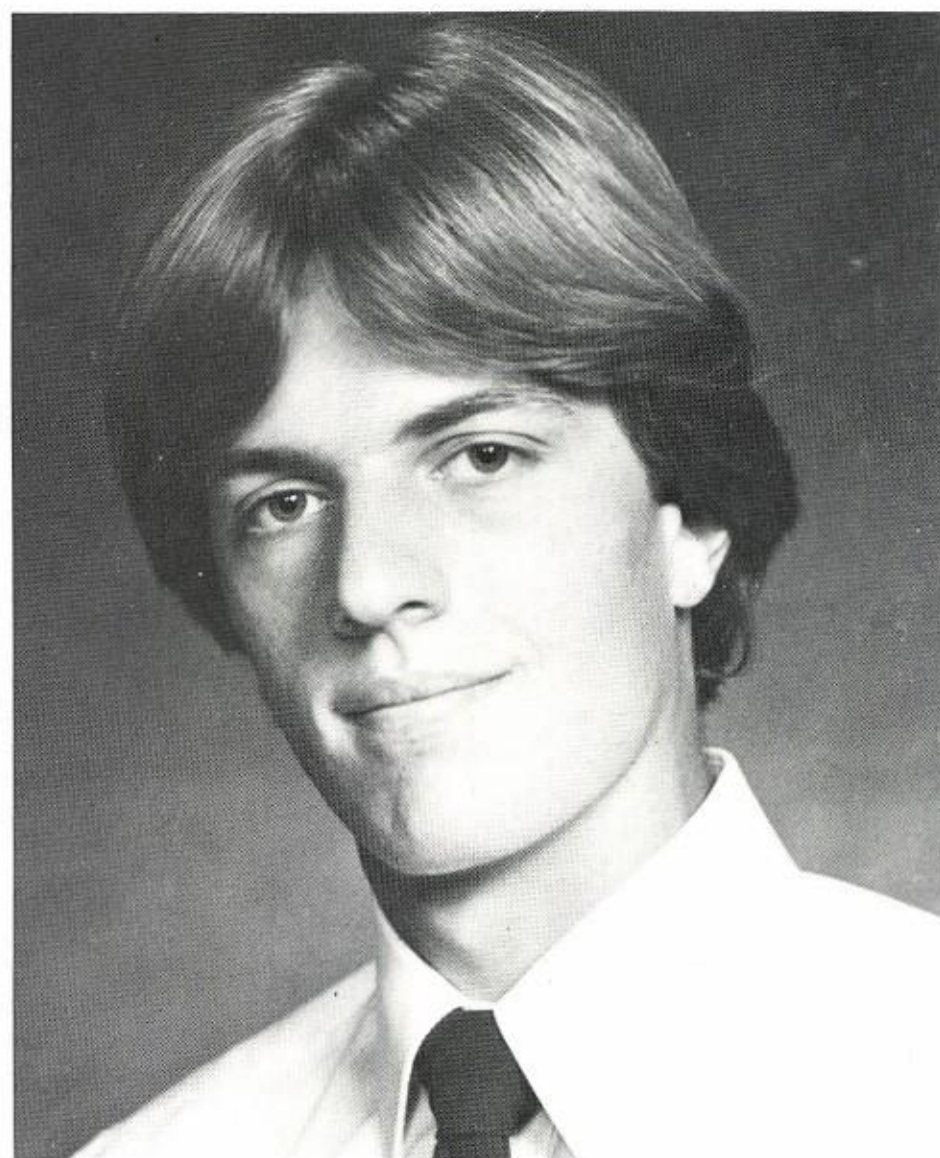

The exchange students became involved in different activities ranging from sports such as tennis, baseball, volleyball, football and horseback riding, to listening to the radio. They all agreed that America offered many things to keep them busy.

FADS

The 1981/82 school year presented many different types of clothes to Agua Fria. Students wore everything from leg warmers, vans, bandanas, sidewalk surfer T-shirts, designer jeans, mini-skirts and metalics, to khakis; and we musn't forget the traditional preppy.

THE WICKIUP STAFF

This year's Wickiup staff, led by their valiant editor Alison Shaklan, worked diligently on the book of memories. With occasional, and continual glares, Alison kept her troops in line. Armed with cameras, the staff forged on, capturing the wild life of Agua Fria in photographs.

Just an average group of students, selected to compose these moments. On the first day of school these unsuspecting teenagers entered room 306. Little did they know of the strange forces they would encounter there. The room, they say, is haunted with ghosts of advisors past. The Wickiup staff still produced a book with "style" despite cobwebs, creaky doors, and leaks. But what has happened to these people? Only I know. They are hidden in the pocket of a pair of faded Jordache jeans, forever trapped in — "The Twilight Zone."

Deciding who to dedicate a yearbook to can be quite a tough decision to make. Our decision was made easier because 1982 marks the 25th year of a caring and spirited individual's service at Agua Fria. Mr. O. K. Fulton first came to our school as a young biology teacher in 1957. He then became Vice Principal in 1977. He has remained at Agua Fria as athletic director and vice principal.

To many of us who will leave this year, he will always linger in our memories of high school. His concern for our education and well-being will guide us in the long and uncertain path we have yet to take. He will also lead those who have just begun at Agua Fria through the maze of their high school years.

Thank you Mr. Fulton. It is because of your beneficial contributions that we offer to you our simple appreciation and the dedication of this book.
